

The first reading teaches that we may be weighted down by worldly concerns, but that God's Spirit gives us wisdom to walk in his ways. In the second reading, Paul asks Philemon to accept his runaway slave back as a brother. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches that to be his disciple, one must be willing to give up family, possessions and even one's life.

*Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Peter-in-Chains!
We are happy you have come to visit and pray with us today. If you're new, introduce yourself.*

Back to School Prayer

Lord our God, in Your wisdom and love
You surround us with the mysteries of the universe. In times long past You sent us Your prophets to teach Your laws and to bear witness to Your undying love. You sent us Your Son to teach us by word and example that true wisdom comes from You alone.
Lord God, your Spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us Your ways. Send Your Spirit upon all students and their teachers as they begin this new school year; and fill them with Your wisdom and blessings.

PLEASE NOTIFY US AT THE RECTORY when a family member is hospitalized or homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion and/or the Sacrament of Penance.
